We hear you

Any gripes, kudos, or ideas? Call 378-9136 to sound off.

I have a gripe. Last weekend the March of Dimes walkathon came through our neighborhood and the rubbish those people left behind was unbelievable. Also the plants in my neighbors front walk were completely trampled. Somewhere it seems we've lost respect for other people's property.

CONCERNED

I read MARQUEE every week, especially the calendar to see what's happening. But you don't list the high school plays. I feel many of these plays are fine entertainment and the tickets are inexpensive too. Personally, I'd like to see them listed.

THEATER GOER

Editor's note: Unfortunately, we just don't have space to list all of the high school productions in MARQUEE which serves almost the entire county. The local newspapers do carry information about high school productions.

I feel the Hamilton mobile home park was a poor choice for a polling place. People couldn't find it and the access off of Hamilton avenue, near Highway 17, is poor. Also the signs polling places use are too small, especially for an inaccessible place like the mobile home park. I thought the Registrar of Voters was going to put out larger "vote Here" signs?

ELECTION WORKER

Editor's note: You weren't alone in your concern about that polling place. Before you called here the registrar's office had already received another similar complaint. That spot has been a polling place for years with no complaints, the spokesman said. The only difference was that, with a low voter turnout expected, that polling place served a larger area this time. The second issue, size of signs, hadn't come to their attention before and will be considered for future elections.

I can't believe (Campbell elementary) board members could make such far reaching decisions on closing schools without more time for study. I disagree strongly with their action Thursday night.

DISSATISFIED TAXPAYER

Before the board meeting last week I wasn't going to vote for the Jarvis-Gann act because it would hurt the schools. Now I'm going to vote for it. Maybe what we need to do in this district is start all over again.

UPSET

Editor's note: We received a total of five calls last week, all critical of the vote to close five schools in the next two years.

I recently took part in the Campbell Police De-

Campbell elementary district

Five schools will close

By MIKE MYSLINSKI

FIVE SCHOOLS in the Campbell elementary district will close due to plummeting enrollment in the next two years.

At its March 9 meeting the school board voted to shut down three schools in September and the remaining two in September, 1979.

This Fall students from Quito School will be reassigned to Marshall Lane and Forest Hill Schools; Cypress School children will be transferred to Lynhaven School and the Moorpark School student body will be consolidated with Monroe School.

Starting in September 1979 San Tomas School children will attend Capri School and students now attending Sherman Oaks will be sent to Blackford School.

At the recommendation of Superintendent Walter Hauss, the board also adopted a plan to establish an alternative school somewhere within the district (probably at Castlemont) to open in September, 1979.

MONROE SCHOOL seventh and eighth grade students will be divided, a year from this September, between Campbell and Rolling Hills junior high schools.

Trustees adopted the recommendations of Hauss regarding the shutdown timetable with one exception. Hauss had advised the board to approve the transferring of the Monroe School upperclass students effective September 1980, but the trustees voted to make the transfer a year earlier.

Four attempts by individual trustees to amend parts of the plan failed, and with each failure tension became more palpable in the Monroe School auditorium, filled to capacity with parents and teachers.

CHRIS POULSEN, 397 Halsey Avenue, took issue with the fact that the district would be purchasing four $63,000 buses in order to handle the mass reassignment of students. He disagreed with the closing of schools to ease the district's financial problems and said the cost of the new buses would be greater than the profit made from selling the closed schools. (Buses would be paid for out of the building fund.)

JoAnn Fairbanks of 1565 Hacienda Avenue accused the board and the administration of pitting "school against school" in their hapahzard process of selecting which school would be closed. Fairbanks charged that the board did not permit the community to "directly

A touch of old Ireland

Stepping out in style this week are Miriam, Dawn and Heather Clark of Campbell who, with brother David, have been studying Irish step dancing for three years now and have almost 100 medals and two trophies to show for their efforts. Their set of costumes, handmade by their mother, a native of Ireland, sport colorful embroidery work and lace. During March the whole family is kept busy with appearances at St. Patrick's Day events with Mom working backstage with other Sharen Carey Dance School dancers and Dad taking care of the sound system. The big upcoming event for Irish dancers is the Irish Social Club Feis coming up in April at Santa Teresa High School featuring three days of dance and crafts competition.

Planners ponder a high rise

The Santa Clara Retirement Foundation has asked for a revised development schedule for the high rise senior citizen apartment building planned for 1655 S. Winchester blvd. That request comes before Campbell planning commissioners at the Tuesday, March 21 meeting.

Sessions start at 7:30 p.m. in the Council Chamber, 75 N. Central ave.

Also on the agenda that night is the continued public hearing of James Hite for a zone change and approval of plans to construct 13 townhouses at 806 S. San Tomas Aquino road.

Father Gregory Post will be back before the commission seeking a use permit and approval of plans for conversion of a residence at 110 W. Latimer ave. into a chapel and rectory.

Richard Miller and Continental Service Company are also seeking a use permit and approval of plans to expand an existing parking lot at 125 E. Campbell ave

Stricter standards asked on tobacco

Capitol News Service

New legislation has been introduced by Assemblywoman Leona Egeland, D-San Jose, that calls for stricter safety standards for cigarettes and other tobacco products.

Egeland cited figures that indicated that tobacco products accounted for approximately 12,000 fire-related deaths and $11 billion in losses.

The measure, Assembly Joint Resolution 67, asks "that the Congress of the United States . . . amend the Consumer Product Safety Act to include tobacco or tobacco products" and to classify tobacco products as a hazardous substance.

Additionally, the measure requests that a study be made to establish maximum safety standards for cigarettes to reduce the number of fires in dwellings and hospitals.

A 1976 study indicated that 26 percent of hospital fires in California's hospitals were caused by cigarettes.

Tobacco and tobacco products are presently excluded from the Consumer Product Safety Act and the Federal Hazardous Substance Act.

The measure has been referred to the Assembly Committee on Governmental Organization.

Voter turnout light in city council race

It will be "four more years" for two incumbent city councilmen reelected March 7 and for the Campbell City Clerk and Treasurer.

Bill Podgorsek, who garnered the most votes (1,072) will be sworn in for his third term of office on March 27 while Ralph Doetsch (with 1,007 votes) begins an unprecedented fifth term.

Clerk Phyllis Acker and Treasurer Nadine Sargent were unopposed at the polls. Acker garnered 1,601 votes and Sargent 1,611.

Closest contender for a spot on the City Council was challenger Madge Overhouse with 869 votes. Trailing was contender Arlene Evans with 554 votes.

Voting was light in Campbell's 13 precincts with a high turnout of 26 per cent at Hazelwood No. 132 to a low of 11.1 per cent for No. 135 in the recreation room at the Cardiff Apartments on Union avenue.

Prior to the March 7 election an official with the county registrar's office estimated a turnout of about 30 per cent. Most precincts reported a much lighter turnout of between 16 and 18 per cent.

The following is a breakdown of voting by precinct:

Board votes to close five schools in next two years

participate" in decisions regarding which schools were to be closed.

Mrs. Fairbanks said the manner in which the trustees chose to pick the closure timetable left the community with the possible alternative of seeking litigation to halt the closing of the schools.

Trustee Virginia Vaughn was the only board member who voted against the motion to shut down the schools.

She said she felt overwhelmed by the information offered to the board to explain why certain schools had to be closed. She said she needed more time to consider the information and that she didn't receive information from the administration on Sherman Oaks School until the day of the board meeting.

BOARD PRESIDENT Donna Baird reminded the audience that 13 community meetings had been held to gather input from citizens affected by the shutdowns and that during those meetings the board heard from 1,235 people. She said the board has seen and read 300 letters on the matter.

Stanley Greenberg, 1335 Spruance St., commended the board for its work on the controversial task of closing the schools and called for unity among parents in order to keep the education of their children at a quality level.

The board also adopted a resolution to reduce the number of certificated employees employed by the district by 10 due to declining enrollment.

Youths who commit adult-size crimes

Youths who commit adult-sized crimes are creating the beginnings of a controversy between correctional officials and lawmakers.

The argument would be between those who would apply rehabilitation tactics to young lawbreakers rather than begin implementing a "youth prison system."

New legislation introduced by Assemblyman Alister McAlister, D-San Jose, adopts open parole hearings and sentencing requirements based upon those against adult criminal offenders.

The bill, AB 2209, prohibits the California Youth Authority (CYA) from "granting parole . . . or discharge to any person (that committed a violent or dangerous felony . . . without a public hearing."

Additionally, the bill requires that sentences served for violent crimes be, at least, equal to the minimum time that an adult offender would serve for the same crime.

The bill stipulates that these conditions of punishment and release apply to "person(s) . . . at least 16 years of age."

Campos takes over manpower

The brand-new director of the Santa Clara Valley Employment and Training Board has held an interesting variety of duties during his lifetime.

Dan Campos, 46, becomes executive director of the $50 million-plus manpower agency at a $31,000 annual salary. He has been affirmative action officer for the City of San Jose since 1972 and was a San Jose police community relations officer for 15 years. He also serves as a Campbell planning commissioner.

Campos was chosen over acting director Dino Pecoraro in an executive (closed-door) session. He was one of 179 who applied to manage the federal Comprehensive Employment and Training Act program in the valley and will assume the new position sometime this month.

The training board was formed Nov. 20, 1973 in a joint powers agreement between the county and San Jose, serving all county areas except Sunnyvale which runs its own CETA program. Over 13,800 participants are served by the 80-member staff.

The assessor could come knocking yearly

It takes money to make money.

This age-worn expression comes into play as the Santa Clara County assessor's office plans to reassess all county properties annually. But to do this will mean additional expenses.

Blanket reassessment practices are planned this year to avoid what are termed cyclical or partial appraisals which lead to inequities in taxation.

Now about 15 per cent of the county's residential or business properties miss annual reassessment. To modernize the assessor's office including a cumbersome data processing system may cost $125,000 and so far only 20 per cent of that has been delivered.

County executives feel it could cost a half million dollars to fully meet modernization goals of the assessor's office.

Assessor's officials say if they don't get the money they need only half of the county properties [illegible] assessed each [illegible] making a sizable [illegible] property tax revenues.

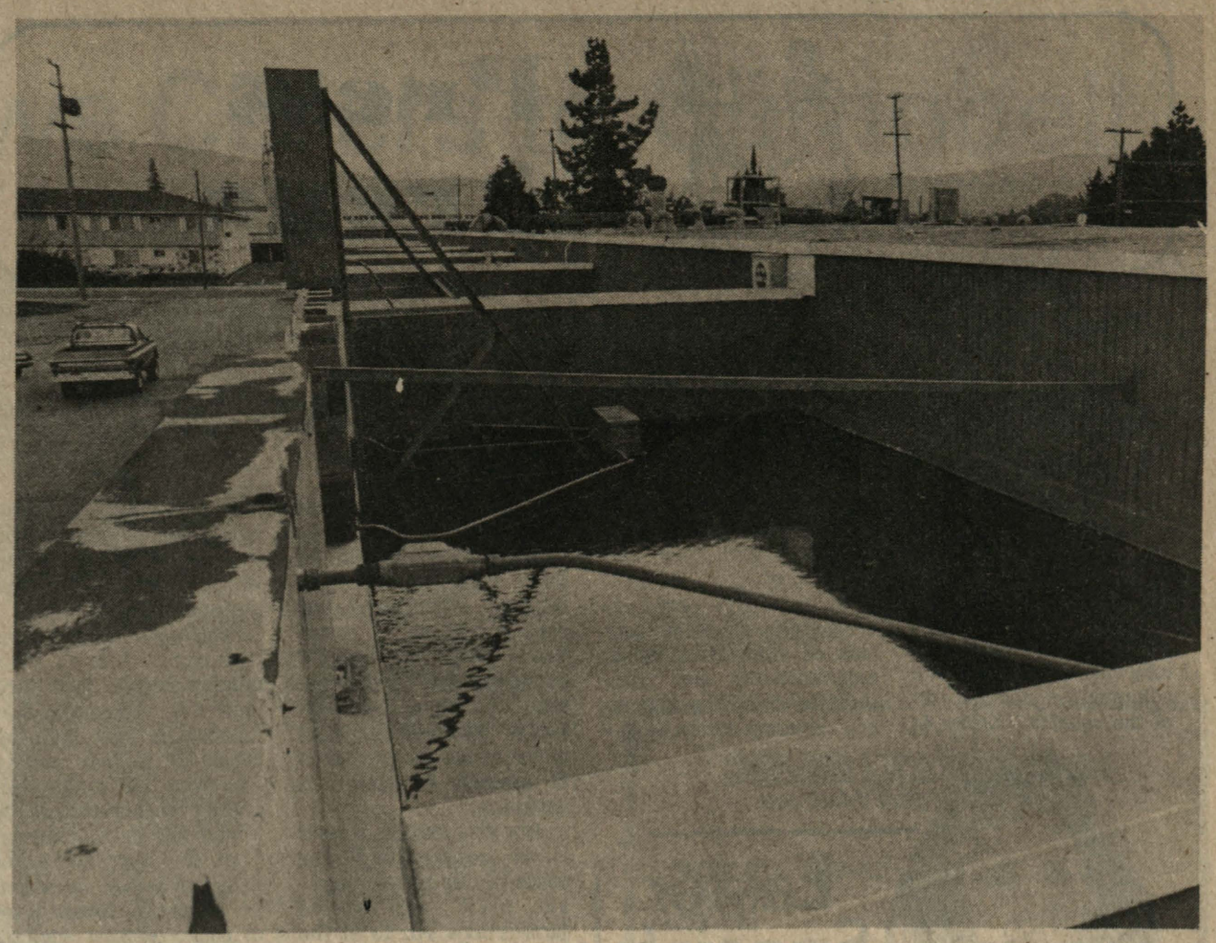
NEGOTIATING the parking lot at the Campbell Shopping Center on Hamilton at Latimer can be a problem, particularly for someone like Jim Garcia. Last week merchants in the center began withholding rents until the center landlords make needed repairs and maintenance of the parking lot and building.



RAINFALL, which collects on the roof of the Campbell Shopping Center, is spilling through the lighting fixtures and circuit breakers, merchants charge. Monday representatives of Westsie Development Company (one of several owners of the center) contacted their tenants to find out the problems and try to work out an agreement.

Out of retirement

Mehrkens enters race for county supervisor

Ralph Mehrkens came out of retirement last week to challenge Rod Diridon for the 4th district seat on the Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors.

The 70-year-old former supervisor filed at the last minute to become the only opposition to Diridon's bid for reelection.

Mehrkens, who served on the board from 1962 to 1974, was unseated by Diridon. He plans to return the favor.

"I think I have a good chance," Mehrkens said Monday, "because the county government has just gotten out of hand financially." When he left the board in 1974, Mehrkens says the total county budget was between $280 and $290 million.

"Currently it's almost $600 million," he added.

Just before the filing period closed last week Mehrkens says he had no plans to seek his old supervisor's seat. But, with two other announced candidates dropping out of the race, Mehrkens says he began receiving numerous calls last Wednesday morning and changed his mind. His filing and nomination papers were picked up Wednesday afternoon and returned the next day.

The former supervisor says he feels the only reason he lost the 1974 bid for reelection was because he couldn't campaign due to the serious illness of his wife of 45 years. She died a short time later.

"This time I'm going to put on a real campaign to win," Mehrkens declared.

Central theme of his statement Monday was the high cost of government.

"I think its high time something was done about it," he said, "and if the Jarvis-Gann initiative is voted in by the people you can be assured something will be done."

He also had some criticism of Diridon.

"My opponent is not functioning in county government as he should be," Mehrkens alleged, citing his very large staff made up of CETA employees and volunteers as well as two paid staffers.

"The Board of Supervisors is a policy making body," he added, "and if supervisors remain in the policy making effort and work with the paid staff then there is absolutely no need of a large staff of people in a supervisor's office."

Mehrkens would also like to see many of the appointed county committees and commissions reduced and to see the young taxpayer get some relief.

Challenging Supervisor Rod Diridon at the polls will be Ralph Mehrkens who held that seat for 14 years before being defeated by Diridon in 1974.

"I believe the senior citizen's plight has been well known now so I would devote my time to thinking about the young people."

The way things are now, Mehrkens says, young people in their early 20's will be working "right up to the grave" just to pay taxes.

"I think these children need help and need help badly," he declared.

Mehrkens and his second wife, Verlie, live at 1621 Hanchett ave. in San Jose.

Building activity is down

The heavy rains of February brought a big upswing in the number of reroofing jobs in Campbell, 10, but other building activity was low.

Total value of building permits issued for February was $713,847, compared to $3.9 million last year at this time.

Largest category was $473,691 for construction of eight single family homes on Gleason, Westmont, and Harriet avenues.

Largest single commercial development was the $109,644 building at 441 N. Central avenue.

Disadvantaged need news too

By BEN BAGDIKIAN

Once we were concerned with one-third of a nation ill-housed and ill-fed. Today, we need to be concerned with one-third of the nation deliberately ill-informed about their own communities and the rest of the country shielded in consuming euphoria from an urban pathology that threatens both inner and outer cities.

Newspapers are increasingly adopting policies of eliminating whole neighborhoods and communities from any systematic coverage and news distribution. This is done on the basis of economic class.

Magazines already do this, some deliberately refusing subscriptions or canceling them in postal zones with low-income demographics. Broadcasters . . . design their content to appeal to that part of the economic spectrum of interest to their advertisers.

Our distribution of news is not designed to fit the needs of our most important civic and social jurisdictions but to fit the impulses of those with high disposable incomes.

Low-income people need better-than-average news yet get the least. Middle class and college degree families usually have a broad range of sources for information that keep them incrementally informed about changes in their environment and changes that will influence their jobs, their education, their neighborhoods and their finances. They get early warning of changes and adjust to them.

This is not so in the central city . . . it is their neighborhoods that are least able to prevent destruction by new highway routes, or to fight zoning variances that make residential life unpleasant, or inhibit localized pollution. They feel the burden of disproportionate taxation, yet receive the lowest level of public services such as trash collection, police response time and housing code enforcements.

Editor's note: Ben Bagdikian, a journalist for many years, is a journalism professor at the University of California Berkeley. This column is an excerpt from a speech he gave recently to the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Contract settlement is overdue

EDITOR:

I feel that the Campbell PRESS should be aware that the teachers of Campbell have been in mediation for over two months in an attempt to negotiate a contract for the year beginning the fall of 1977.

Although the teachers have asked for a salary increase that is less than the rise in cost of living for this year and next year, and have demonstrated to the Board that the money is available, the Board's representative has not changed the offer of 4 per cent for next year. We are asking for 6 per cent for the year 1978-79.

Because you are the news media for this community, we think you have the right to know how we as teachers feel and your involvement could help get this contract settled.

A call to our school board members might encourage them to settle.

Muriel E. Vickinson,
Speech and language therapist

Editor's note: An announcement about a contract settlement was expected this week but after our deadline for the March 16 issue.

Let's shut down Sherman Oaks.

Rolling Hills
Is plagued with ills,
And when one thinks it over,
San Tomas
Would be no loss,
But please don't fool with Dover.

BlackfordSchool
Is not too cool,
Folks heaved a mighty sigh
When their older kids —
Long on the kids —
Joined Campbell Junior High.

At Castlemont
They often flaunt
The programs that they carry.
Their greatest fear
From year to year
Is merger with Rosemary.

We probably should
Keep Hazelwood —
I am not sure just why,
Their teaching staff
Would make one laugh,
Parents out there cry.

So listen fools!
Shut down some schools,
Say four or six or nine.
The A.D.A.
Has slipped away
But, dammit, don't close mine.

partment ride-along program and would recommend it to anyone who lives here in Campbell. It was a real eye opener for me. I've lived here 17 years and remain impressed with our police department.

A FAN

My phone service was out for three days and when I got my bill I called to say I should have received credit (on the basic rate) for those three days when I couldn't use my telephone. Someone at the office told me it would be too much of a bookkeeping problem to take care of that credit. That doesn't sound fair to me.

DISSATISFIED CUSTOMER

Editor's note: That not only isn't fair, it isn't right, says Alvin Jackson of Pacific Telephone. When a line out of service has been reported it is standard procedure to credit customers part of the basic rate. Since you didn't leave your name and phone number, Jackson asks that you call your local phone company office and it will be taken care of promptly. He would also like to know who told you it couldn't be done.

St. Patrick's bash

Three day event draws CB'ers to Campbell

THREE DAYS of Irish festivities, to benefit the American Cancer Society, get underway at The Factory this Friday as booths and exhibits open at 12:30 p.m. and live entertainment begins at 1 p.m. in the ampitheater.

Appearances by radio and TV personalities from the Bay Area are scheduled along with a visit from the San Jose Earthquakes, San Francisco Shamrocks, Golden State Warriors and the Golden Gaters.

Peter Isacksen, co-star of the CPO Sharkey television show will be appearing Saturday and Sunday and has been named Grand Marshall of the "World's Only Stationary St. Patrick's Day Parade," starting at 10 a.m. Saturday on Campbell avenue downtown.

Other Friday festivities include a corned beef and cabbage dinner, available at the IOOF Hall, corner of First st. and Campbell ave. and at Ace McMurphy's.

A St. Patrick's Day Dance is scheduled Friday evening at 9 p.m. in the Hyde Cannery Hall at The Factory and featuring "The Paddy Wagon," a band from Ireland.

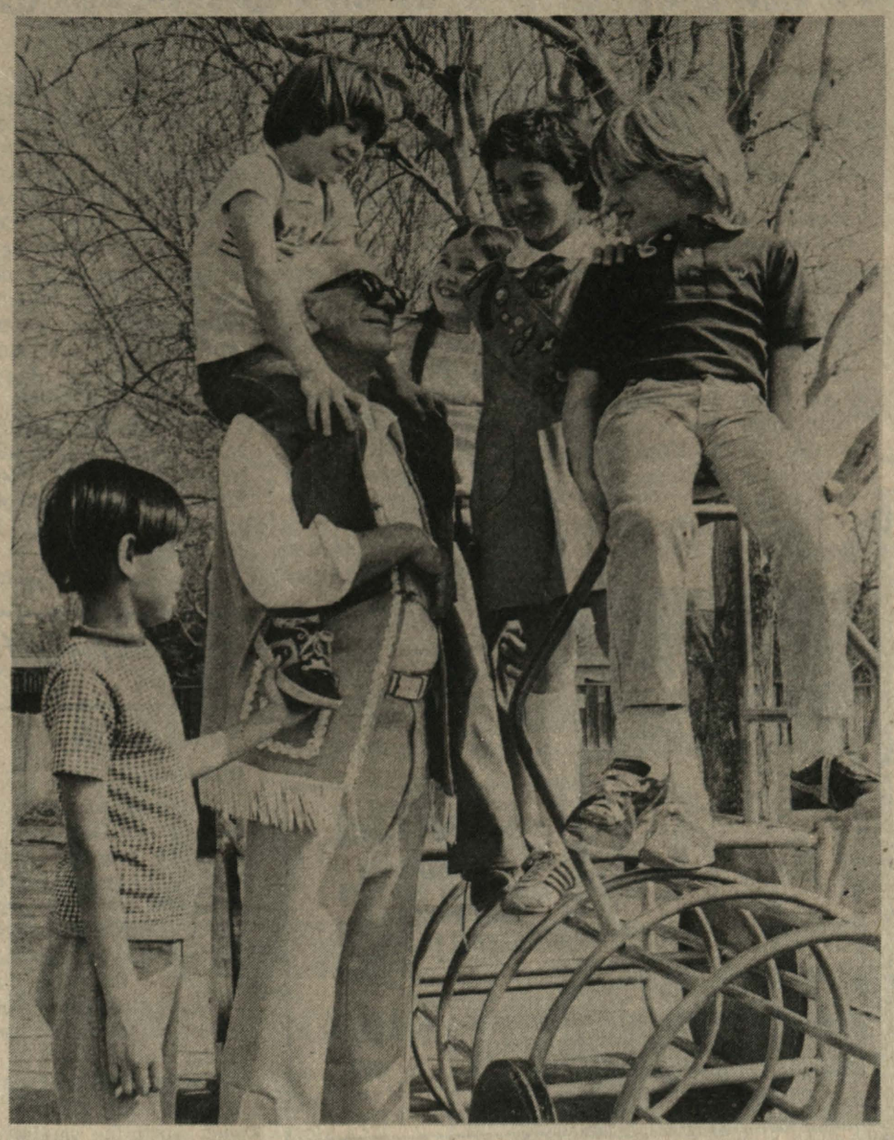
SATURDAY EVENTS get underway at 9 a.m. with a pancake breakfast served at the IOOF Hall and booths and exhibits open.

Following the parade, entertainment starts at The Factory at noon. A dominos tournament and "Toilet Paper Tournament" is also planned.

At 1 p.m. performers from the Gaslighter Theater will make an appearance with music from the "Niles Country" band at 2 p.m. and a square dance exhibition at 3.

That evening starting at 9 p.m. will be the Ole Time Country Western Dance featuring "The Wild Bunch."

Brunch at The Black Kettle opens the Sunday activities at 10 a.m. and the Giant Soup to Nuts Auction with celebrity auctioneers will be held from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. All merchandise has been donated and all proceeds go directly to the cancer fund.



The Old Water Skier (Frank Quinville) will be M.C. throughout the three day St. Patrick's Day Shenanigans this Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 17, 18 and 19, at The Factory and downtown Campbell. Above Skier makes some new local friends, from left, Minh Nguyen, Holly Stephenson, Christine Monahan, Hilary Ragan and Steven Wise. CB radio clubs from throughout the area have joined forces to put together this jamboree with benefits going to the American Cancer Society.

Parade slated for Saturday

Some entires are decidelv Irish for the St. Patrick's Day Parade that gets underway at 10 a.m. this Saturday, March 18 on Campbell avenue.

The stationary parade route will be on Campbell, between Third street and Harrison.

Peter Isacksen of CPO Sharkey" is the grand marshall.

The Irish Pipers will be making an appearance, along with the Shannon Dance Group.

Float entries include McDonald, Der Weinerschnitzel and San Jose Beauty College in the commercial category and the Hot Peppers and Airwaves Advisory Association and BBS Bull floats.

The St. Claire Hook and Ladder company (antique fire equipment) will also appear here along with other individual entries.

Who's in the running in regional elections

As filing for countywide and regional elective posts closed Friday, March 10, candidates tossed their hats into the ring for the upcoming elections. There were a few surprises for the voters, too, as Cupertino Councilman Dan O'Keefe declared he'll oppose Rep. Norman Mineta in the 13th Congressional district. And former County Supervisor Ralph Mehrkens, previously defeated by incumbent Rod Diridon in the fourth district, said he'd try again for that post.

Here's the lineup of candidates for the June 6 ballot:

District 1, county supervisor: With incumbent Sig Sanchez retiring, 14 candidates are seeking the post, including San Jose vice-mayor Susanne Wilson, Richard Vincent, George M. Jacobsen, Henry J. Santoro, Alfred J. James, Lucy M. Walsh, E. Bruce Franks, Thomas Kruse, Carolyn Wilson, Bert D. Millen, Anthony Nisich, Ivan M. Zubow, James W. Davis, and Mark B. DiDuca.

District 4, county supervisor: Incumbent Rod Diridon faces Ralph Mehrkens.

County assessor: In the running are Alfred Carlson, assistant assessor; Thomas A. Goulding, Andy Bonfield, George W. Locke, and Ernest Konnyu. Konnyu last week lost his bid for a seat on the Saratoga City Council.

County sheriff: Sheriff James Geary faces opposition from Robert E. Winter and Richard Saldivar, both sheriff's lieutenants; Patrick McCabe, Michael Larsen, and Robert L. Jimenez, deputies, and San Jose Police Sgt. Charles Blackmore, who is also a trustee of the San Jose Community College district.

Judges, superior court: Judge Bruce Allen faces opposition from Richard Cotta. Judge Taketsugu Takei faces David Lull. Municipal courts: Judge John Schatz is challenging Judge Fred Lucero, and Judge Charles Gordon faces Wester Sweet. Judge Robert Beresford faces opponents Robert Ahern and B. J. Cougill. Judge Stephen Manley faces Robert M. Foley, and Judge Miriam E. Wolff faces Alfred C. Fabris.

State Assembly: 21st district incumbent Victor Calvo (D) faces no primary opposition, but in November he'll be opposed by Sunnyvale Councilman Greg Morris (R).

22nd district: Republican incumbent Richard Hayden has no primary opposition, but Democrats will compete with each other in the June primary for the chance to oppose him. They are Campbell City Councilman Russell Hammer and Cupertino resident John B. Truher. American Independent candidate Wilbur M. Kernighan is also running.

23rd district: Democratic Assemblyman John Vasconcellos, the incumbent, faces only a November challenge from Republican Lynn Knapp.

24th Assembly: Again, no June contest, but Democratic incumbent Leona Egeland will face Republican Jack Sandoval in November.

25th Assembly: Democratic incumbent Alister McAlister faces primary opposition from William Horn, member of the Alum Rock board of trustees. Republican Carl Bocchini will also seek the seat.

State senate, 12th district: Democratic incumbent Jerry Smith faces primary opposition from Shirley J. Hendrickson. Republicans seeking the post include the man Smith defeated in 1974, Clark Bradley, former legislator; and Mark Hart of Sunnyvale.

Congressional elections: Democratic incumbent Norman Mineta will face Republican Dan O'Keefe and Peace and Freedom candidate Robert Goldsborough.

In the 10th Congressional district, Democratic incumbent Don Edwards will face the victor of the GOP primary — either William E. Lewis, or Rudy Hansen. And in the 12th Congressional district, Republican incumbent Pete McCloskey will face the victor of the Democratic primary — either Kristen Olsen or Ronald E. Lewis, both of Palo Alto — along with American Independent Harold Boylan and Peace and Freedom candidate Adele Fumino.

newsbriefs

No money for new jails

There is no money to build new jail facilities.

This was not what Sheriff James Geary wanted to hear from Santa Clara County supervisors but it was the message anyway — the county has no capital improvement money available for new jails.

County executives, however, were directed to meet with the sheriff to outline department needs and county options. Supervisors told Geary there was no point in "screaming and hollering" since there is no money.

Geary said he does not want on his conscience the possibility of both prisoners and guards hurt because of serious overcrowding of current detention facilities. He feels either he or the board will be sued over the matter.

Money for text books

A $9.6 million measure geared at steering money to school textbooks and away from the state's general fund passed the Assembly Education Committee by a unanimous vote. Senator John Dunlap, D-Napa, announced an effort to push the measure through the necessary committees, the Assembly and on to the Governor within two weeks.

The money, if not committed, would otherwise be transferred to the general fund under recommendation of the Governor's annual budget.

Will the lion lie down with the ram, Leo?

Mar. 18 through Mar. 24

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Happy birthday, Ari! Your quick wit is perhaps your most outstanding quality. You can always be relied upon to make others laugh, even at the most unlikely moment. Snap decisions and little temper tantrums can cause trouble in year ahead. Slow down, my friend. As year ends, a hostile force fades.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20): Tendency toward lethargy strong this week, Taurus. What you refer to as "Spring fever" others call "sloth." Involve yourself in some form of physical exercise. Hop, skip or jump — it really doesn't matter, so long as you keep the old bod moving.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): If you've been wondering just how far you can go without getting caught, in week ahead you find out. Good luck, Gem. You're going to need it.

CANCER (May 21-June 20): Stop fussing and fuming, Moonbaby, it only lowers your efficiency and raises your blood pressure. Messages/calls/letters highlighted Week of choices jumps to an interesting conclusion.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Aries storms into picture and sparks fly. You are both fire signs, but in this case you should not fight fire with fire. If the lion is ever going to lie down with the ram, calm and cool must be the strategy.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): A spring tonic is highlighted, Virgo, in the form of an attractive newcomer. You not only handle situation, you actually thrive on it. Week of questions ends on affirmative note.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22): Long-distance communications highlighted. Basic issues involved. Money matters are best handled quietly, Lib, so let your terms be spot cash. Relax on last day and eat some jelly beans.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): If you feel like doing a little spring fishing, Scorp, bait your hook with something neat but not gaudy. You're due for a nice catch any day now. Troubled waters calm and week ends quietly.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21): Matter hanging heavy over your head requires action. Stop thinking in terms of "tomorrow." Tomorrow will never do, for tomorrow never comes. Get off of your duff, Saj, and get into action. NOW!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19): Member of another generation needs your attention, Cap, as well as your love. Messages highlighted. Before week is over, Cupid taps you on the shoulder. Week ends with a quiver.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18): Forces are scattered. Odds and ends, bits and pieces — nothing seems to fit. A touch of madness may be required, Aquari, just to remain sane.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - March 20): In some ways, Pisces, you have just finished the winter of your discontent. Conditions begin to improve this week. Messages highlighted. Week ends on key of C, for cash, candy and cottontail.

Prop. 13: 'disaster'

Proposition 13, the Jarvis-Gann initiative limiting property taxes to one percent of full case value, has been characterized as a "blueprint for disaster" by members of the Los Angeles Unified School district.

Superintendent William J. Johnston noted that they could lose a total of $880 million if the initiative becomes law.

Tahoe basin

New legislation has been introduced in the Senate that would ensure that California and Nevada "work in unison for the benefit of the Lake Tahoe basin area."

Author Senator Ray Johnson, R-Chico, noted that the bill, SB 1597, would strengthen the California-Nevada Tahoe Regional Planning Agency.

No 'home on the range' here

Santa Clara County is clearly an urban county, as witnessed by its meager share of federal grazing fees. This county received nearly $194 for 1976-77 while sprawling San Bernardino County, for example, was allocated $56,500.

State Controller Kenneth Cory said individual apportionments of the $175,758 in federal grazing fees varied greatly, depending upon the extent of grazing lands within each county. Money is collected by the federal Bureau of Land Management from stockmen grazing herds on federal lands.

The $193.56 collected in this county must be used by counties towards range improvement and control of predatory animals. San Luis Obispo County to the south received $11,891 while primarily-agricultural Fresno and Kern counties in the San Joaquin Valley were given over $25,000.

Youth 'sports mecca' turns out pros

By MIKE COLPITTS

STAUNCH SUPPORT of youth athletic programs has been a way of life for Campbell residents. That support has paved the way for many local athletes to become "pros."

From 20 to 30 professional athletes have been turned out of the city's many athletic programs. But the name that no one forgets is Craig Morton, the Campbell High quarterback who signed a professional football contract upon graduation from Cal Berkeley with the Dallas Cowboys. He is now star quarterback for the Denver Broncos.

Certainly though, Morton hasn't been the only professional athlete to come out of Campbell. The list includes Bill Wilson with the 49'ers, and Joe Swabb, who was Morton's passing buddy, but unfortunately never escalated up the ranks in pro ball.

Steve Davis, was with the New York Mets in the World Series, and is now with the Philadelphia Phillies. He is one of many more to come from Campbell.

Don Hahn is now an outfielder with Phoenix, and his brothers Gordy and George are also playing pro baseball. Behind the plate, George is with the Phillies and Gordy is with a minor league club.

DON KINSELL is also with the Phillies. And there are several former athletic heroes now coaching, like Chuch Hawthorne, coaching football at Fresno State, John Odom at San Jose City College coaching baseball, Stan Hawthorne coaching football at Washington State, and Pat Hardiken coaching with the Yankees.

Despite never having perennially awesome teams, Campbell has also had a couple of players sign with National Basketball Association clubs. Keith Swagerty played at Camden High and signed with a National Basketball Association team, while Dennis Awtrey is currently playing with the Phoenix Suns.

Campbell's long history has been strong in athletic competition, but as the community's residents contend, baseball is the city's most continuously strong game.

"The Campbell youth baseball and sports programs have given Campbell a good deal of its identity," says Ralph Pfirrmann, a member of the Campbell Little League board of trustees. "Really, until last year there was only one city that sent more than one team to the national finals and that was Campbell. But it's something that has come from amateurs. We didn't get professional coaches like some other leagues practically do. We have local coaches turn out fine teams," he says.

However, Pfirrmann's statements are almost half-hearted since many of Campbell Little League's coaches have been with the league so long they're almost professionals. However, none get paid.

"WE STARTED with three teams when I was with the league 21 years ago," said Jack Zogg, who coached the 1976 Campbell team that took the United States championship in Williamsport, Pa., but failed to take the World championship.

"And last year we had 28 teams. In 1970 when the league had its peak we had 540 boys," he adds. "The games stayed the same, but the coaches have gotten a little smarter," noted Zogg, who has never had a team go under the .500 mark for a season.

"It's very fortunate for us to have the personnel we have working in the league. And the backing, it's fantastic. The community really gets behind us. We've had the same backing for years. The Ainsley Corporation has been with us for 23 years, and there are others that have been with us almost that long," asserted Zogg.

Most of Campbell's baseball players who eventually signed professional contracts have been a part of the Campbell Little League. There have been so many players to sign professionally that the league's oldest members have sometimes even forgotten who they are.

"ONE OF THE players I was talking to in 1976 when we went to Municipal Stadium for District 44 Night surprised me," noted Zogg. "He was too much. He was one of the players who played against one of my teams in the league some nine or ten years earlier and I didn't even know it."

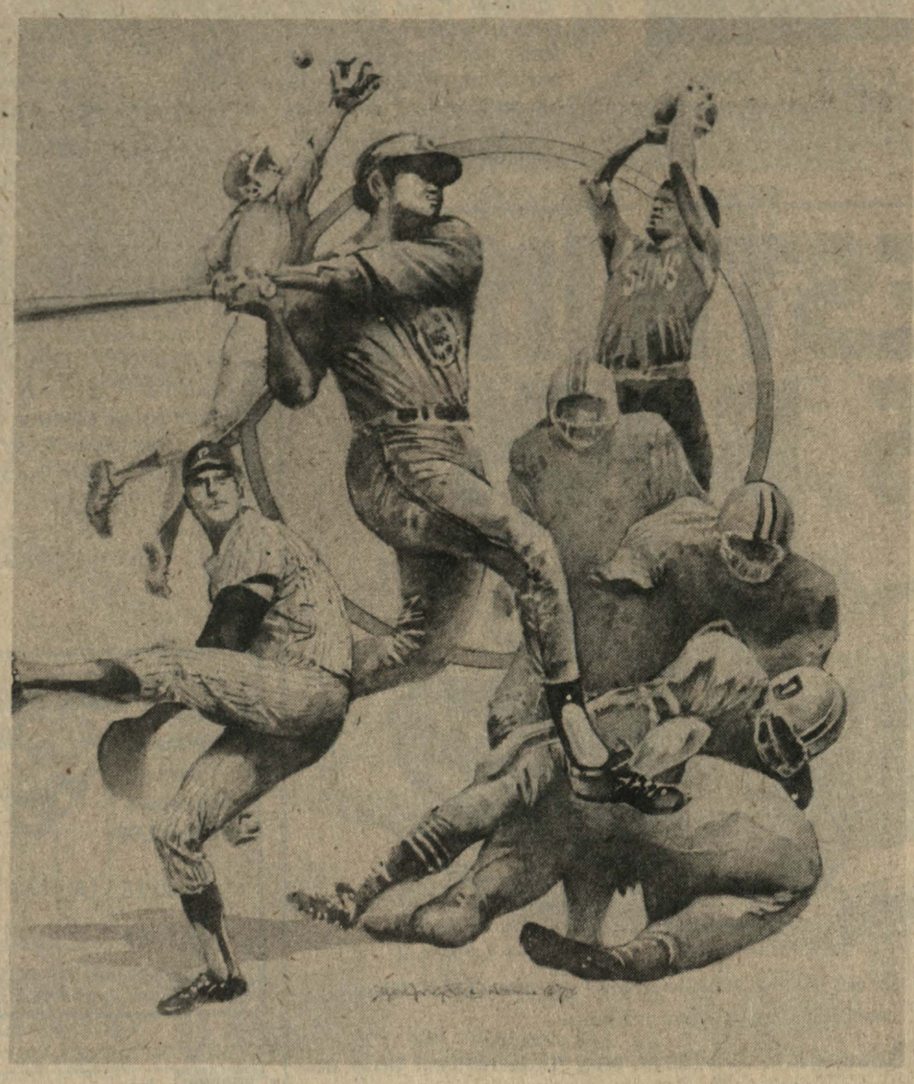
Zogg and his assistant, John Emery, have seen literally hundreds of players go through the league, Zogg coaching 21 years and Emery 15. But there are also others who have coached or been part of Campbell's most prestigious little league for many years as well.

Campbell High School football coach Al Matthews remembers many athletes who have gone through his school and the city's programs, and so does Joe McGrody, who has been associated with the Little League for many years.

The league officially started to give the community's athletes an incorporated little league status in 1954. However, Bob Street, a Campbell resident, says his dad remembers playing in the league prior to '54.

"Since Campbell's a relatively small town you get people who are interested in building a successful program. We practice a lot and we play a lot of games," says McGrody.

"But why has Campbell turned into a sports mecca?" he asked himself. "I guess success kind of breeds success."



FROM THE earliest days Campbellites have been strong supporters of youth sports programs. The annual Los Gatos-Campbell High School Turkey Day game is still one of the best attended events of the year. Over the years Campbell has run up an impressive record in Little League with two trips to the World Series in Williamsport, Pa. and over 20 local athletes who joined the professional ranks.

PAL choice

Intrieri picked junior citizen of the year '77

An 18-year-old Santa Clara University student was the choice as Junior Citizen of the Year at the annual awards banquet of the San Jose Police Athletic League (PAL) last Friday.

Mark Intrieri, Del Mar High School graduate, received the top PAL, award for scholastic and athletic achievement, leadership ability and community participation.

The political science major was a four-year honor student at Del Mar, maintaining a 3.65 grade point average and was a pitcher and centerfielder on the varsity baseball team. His batting average was .389 and he tied the school record for home runs and triples in a single season (1977).

This season he was a starting pitcher in PAL baseball with an ERA of .78 and a .553 batting average. Intrieri was chosen to the PAL All-Star team in 1977 and pitched his team to victory in the JDL championship games.

Community service includes serving as assistant coach for the Willow Glen Little League volunteer duty with the PAL baseball league and taking part in fund-raising drives for charitable groups.

He is the son of Peter and Corinne Intrieri, 1599 San Gabriel way, San Jose.

Along with the citizen award Intrieri received a trophy, a special PAL jacket and a check for $50 from the league.

Flash!!! For your added enjoyment, I've just published my 1978 Annual "DINING AFFAIRS," & it has just hit the newsstands. . . it contains over 101 top-rated restaurants, covering an area from S. San Francisco to Monterey. Each restaurant writeup w/incl. a picture, description & a "Chef's Favorite Recipe" . . . I've written it with YOU in mind, so I hope you like it . . . (& buy it, too!. . .).

As usual, I read all the magazines in the beauty parlor & this week, read an article regarding the great health of the Japanese & other Orientals whose diet consists of fr. fish & rice. Well now, the FISH MARKET restaurant is the place to find the freshest fish in town; they catch it from their own fishing vessels off the coast, filet the fish twice, debone it, & serve it to you in an attractive manner. Dine at the FISH MARKET RESTAURANT or buy fr. fish from their retail market in the foyer to take home. So this solves the fr. fish problem — the rice is on you!

The "wearing of the green" w/be very apparent at CLEMENTINE'S on St. Patrick's Day. They w/serve their usual great Corned Beef & Cabbage w/potatoes & vegs. & a choice of soup or salad — lunch $3.95, dinner $5.95. You'll be able to listen to the great jazz music of "LIGHT" who have been packing in the crowds at this attractive restaurant. Mgr. Roger Shilling has already selected his Easter Brunch menu (8 items priced $3.95-$5.25). Brunch w/be served 10 to 2:30 p.m. & w/incl. a fr. fruit cup & complimentary glass of champagne. Every holiday is a festive occasion at CLEMENTINE'S!

I can't think of a better place for an adult birthday party or lg. anniversary dinner than one of the six SIRLOIN & BREW UNLIMITED restaurants (a new one opened near Oakland Airport/Coliseum). I know of company groups, too, who have business get-togethers there because the price of food & drinks is so reasonable & the atmosphere is conducive to groups of 8, 10 or 12. Your group can enjoy a superb V.I.P. steak dinner, w/ unlimited salad bar, plus all the wine, beer or sangria they wish, for $4.79! I recommend it for your next celebration or club function.

Do you like Hot & Sour Soup??? It happens to be one of my passions & the HWEI FU SHING RESTAURANT in Palo Alto prepares it in a delicious fashion . . . no wonder since owner/Chef Pang On Lwi uses recipes that he brought w/him from Burma & previously used in popular San Fran. restaurants. He also makes delicious crisp Egg Rolls & Spicy Hot Shredded Pork. This restaurant is open 7 days a week & caters to the whole family. You'll be greeted & assisted by his pretty daughter, Joyce.

NEWLY ELECTED West Valley board member Wade Brummal

College could operate 1 year under Jarvis

IF THE Jarvis-Gann property tax initiative on the June ballot passes, West Valley College could continue to operate for one year. But it would use up $8.7 million of the district's $9.4 million reserves, board members were told last week.

The district could operate for one year keeping all regular full-time personnel, assistant superintendent of finance Dr. Leroy Lowery told board members. But at the end of the school year, $600,000 would be left in the reserve fund said Lowery.

However, as one cost saving measure, the board authorized the sending of reassignment notices to 19 administrators, including the superintendent, assistant superintendent and two college presidents. The administratiors will be reassigned as teachers, if Jarvis passes. The notices will be withdrawn, if Jarvis fails.

In other action, the board called for bids on furniture and equipment for Mission College after a lengthy discussion. Bicycles for a physical fitness class and some $15,000 worth of potted plants to decorate Mission College's interior were dropped from the list after board member John Cantlen objected to this inclusion.

EASTER WEEKEND ACTIVITIES

The third annual Easter Egg Hunt and Bonnet Parade Contest is slated for Saturday, March 25, at 9:30 a.m. at John D. Morgan Park.

Campbell area youngsters are invited to this community services-sponsored event featuring more than 400 pounds of candy to be given away and an appearance by the Easter Bunny and a special TV cartoon character.

Bonnet parade contestants will be judged in such areas as most colorful, funniest, most creative and others. Age group competition will be held for those 4 and under, 5 through 7 and 8 through 10.

CAMPOS TAKES OVER SCVETB

Dan Campos of Campbell will take over his new post as executive director of the Santa Clara Valley Employment and Training Board on Monday, March 27, San Jose Mayor Janet Gray Hayes announced last week. Hayes is chairperson of the SCVETB board.

Campos was picked from 179 candidates for that post.

SPRING CAMP FOR KIDS

Youngsters 6 through 10 years are invited to take part in the Holiday Spring Camp, sponsored by Campbell Community Services March 20-23 at Campbell Junior High School.

The fee is $10 and camp activities will include treasu hunts, a field trip, games, sports, and arts and crafts.

Sessions are from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday throu Thursday in room 6 at the local school.

For information call 378-8141 weekdays.

BUC BAND RAISES FUNDS

Members of the Campbell High School band plus flag girls and Pirettes will be busy selling McDonald's coupons to help raise funds for their scheduled trip to Disneyland April 30.

The coupon tickets (for a $1 donation) entitle the bearer to a free 99 cent meal at the fast food restaurant after buying five meals at McDonalds on Winchester blvd., near Hamilton.

In addition to performing at Disneyland the high school performers also plan a trip to Knott's Berry Farm and Universal Studios.

NEED TO REGISTER?

If you need to know if you're registered to vote in the June election, or need registration information call the new public information number of the county registrar of voters at 298-7400.

BALLROOM DANCE OFFERED

The Samba and Viennese Waltz are a few of the special dances to be taught by John and Agnes Hannigan on Tuesdays, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. beginning April 4 at Campbell Junior High School.

Registration for this Campbell Community Services class is being taken now at City Hall, 75 N. Central ave.

The $15 per couple fee covers 8 lessons.

Call 378-8141 weekdays for more information.

LOCAL PHONE PAY STATION

Campbell Jewelers, 1775-A Winchester blvd., will become an official pay station for Pacific Telephone, owner Olie Olszewski announced last week.

The local business, in the Campbell Shopping Center, is presently a pay station for the Campbell Water Company and PG&E.

Advising about kids

County Supervisor Geraldine Steinberg is seeking a volunteer to serve on the Santa Clara County Child and Adolescent Advisory Commission.

The person named must be from the education field.

The commission advises supervisors and county government on the needs of children and adolescents in the county. The commissioners are especially concerned about insuring that adequate services are available for this age group.

The 18 members are selected by the supervisors from the areas of education, juvenile justice agencies, physical health, mental health, recreation, law, social services, community services, child care and employment.

Anyone interested in applying should write a letter of application to Steinberg, County Government Center, 10th Floor, 70 W. Hedding St., San Jose, 95110.

Sickle cell education

A sickle cell education outreach project aimed specifically at identifying carriers of the sickle cell trait has entered its second year through a state grant administered by the Santa Clara County Health Department.

Identification of the sickle cell trait is important in helping to prevent future cases according to Martha Davis, two risks exist for their children. The trait could be inherited by the child or in the case of a couple each with the sickle cell trait, the child could be born with sickle cell anemia.

Sickle cell anemia is a genetic blood disorder found most frequently among blacks. The disease and the trait are also found among persons of Middle East, Southern India and Mediterranean origin. The incidence of sickle cell trait among blacks in this country is one in 12 live births and one in 400 for the disease.

Education on sickle cell to the community and schools is available by health department staff assigned to the Project as well as sickle cell testing and counseling.

Anyone wishing to be tested for the sickle cell trait may call their nearest district health office for available times or go to the Central Clinic, 645 S. Bascom Ave., Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

More information on sickle cell anemia or the trait is available from the sickle cell project staff at the Health Department, 279-5850.

Neglected children

Responding to members of his constituency who work against child abuse and neglect, Assemblyman Michael Antonovich, R-Glendale, has introduced legislation promoting the early detection and treatment of abused or neglected children.

The Assemblyman authored legislation (AB 1596) last year to include training in the early detection of child abuse in medical school curriculums.

The new bill, AB 2491, would extend that training to peace officers, doctors, nurses and school personnel.

The training, which would include seminars, lectures and conferences, would be provided by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, the Department of Education and other specified state agencies.

Joan Chan, an aide to the Assemblyman, said that the program would provide specialized training for those persons most likely to come into contact with battered children.

AB 1596, already passed into law, is currently being evaluated for the training it provides.

How we figured these taxes

How we figured the taxes: We asked the county assessor's office to tell us what the tax would be on homes with a $50,000, $60,000 or $70,000 market value. He assumed a tax rate of $12 per $100 of assessed valuation, about the countywide average.

How to figure your taxes now: Currently, the property tax on your home is determined by taking the assessed valuation (25 percent of what the county assessor says the market value of your property is worth), deducting the homeowners exemption ($1,750) and multiplying by the tax rate. You can find the total tax rate for the current year on your last tax bill.

Under the Behr bill: Determine the current assessed value. Subtract the homeowners exemption, take 70 per cent of that and multiply by the tax rate.

(For this bill to take effect, Proposition 8 on the June ballot would also have to pass. It would permit owner-occupied homes to be taxed at a lower rate than businesses).

Under the Jarvis initiative: Figure out the 1975-1976 market value of your property (you can find this on an old tax bill), take one percent of that and multiply by the tax rate.

Jarvis-Gann initiative: salvation or ruin?

By TOM GILSENAN

LEONA MAGIDSON'S taxes went up $500 in 1964. She was stunned and angry. "We decided that was not going to continue," she recalls now.

That's how the Jarvis initiative got its start.

Magidson and others formed an alliance of taxpayer groups in Los Angeles that year. "It all began on my patio," she says, remembering those early days of battling to keep taxes down.

While carrying on a continuing battle against tax increases, the United Organization of Taxpayers kept looking for some kind of permanent end to tax increases — especially property taxes. Three times, the group tried to get a tax limitation on the ballot. It failed each time.

But last year, the fourth time, was different. Soaring property taxes infuriated homeowners all over the state and fueled a widespread tax protest movement. It was just the climate for an initiative proposal by Howard Jarvis and Paul Gann which would limit property taxes.

More than one million people signed petitions to get the Jarvis initiative on the ballot. In every single county, initiative organizers got enough signatures to qualify for the ballot.

Basically, the initiative would limit property taxes to 1 percent of the assessed value of a home. Other provisions would:

- Roll back the assessed valuation on homes to the 1975-1976 level.
- Limit reassessments to times when property is sold.
- Limit increases in assessments to 2 percent per year.
- Require a two-thirds vote of the legislature for any new state taxes.
- Require a two-thirds vote of "qualified electors" for any new local tax.

The result, if the initiative passes, would be a 60 percent cut in property taxes for everyone homeowner and business.

MOST AFFECTED by the initiative's passing would be school districts, which get 66 percent of all the property tax money collected in Santa Clara County. Schools are worried that the state might not make up this cutback in property tax revenue.

"The results could be devastating," says Glenn Hoffmann, county superintendent of schools, who predicts widespread cutbacks if the initiative passes and nothing else happens.

Cities and the county also say there could be a serious effect if the initiative passes. They predict cutbacks which would be severe, but not as much as those for school districts.

Supporters of the initiative say the school districts and other government agencies are merely spreading scare stories. "The financial impact just isn't that great," says Roberta Allen, head of United Taxpayers of Santa Clara County, the local group coordinating the campaigning for Proposition 13, the Jarvis initiative.

Allen and others who support the initiative say government agencies are overestimating the effect of the initiative. Besides, they argue, there are other sources of state revenue like the state income tax. They want the property tax to be levied strictly for property-related services like police, fire and street repair.

JARVIS OPPONENTS are also worried about how things will work in the month following the June election, if the initiative passes. Proposition 13 would go into effect just about a month after the election which could cause monumental confusion, they say.

Allen disagrees, saying the legislature can take its time figuring out what to do, meanwhile paying for schools and other services from the enormous state surplus which has built up recently. "Sure it will cause a little confusion," says Allen. But she maintains the state has a year to work things out.

The strongest weapon in the arsenal of Jarvis opponents is a newly passed state tax law, commonly called the Behr bill. Billed as an alternative to Jarvis, it would lower property taxes 30 percent. It would also boost the income tax credit for renters to $75.

Main provisions of Proposition 13

Here are the major provisions of the Jarvis initiative, Proposition 13 on the June ballot:

PROPERTY TAXES would be cut 60 per cent by limiting taxes to one percent of the assessed value of a home and rolling back assessed values to those of the 1975-'76 year.

TAX INCREASES at the state level would require a ⅔ vote of the state legislature. At the local level, they would require a ⅔ vote of all "qualified electors." Jarvis supporters say this means ⅔ of those voting, while opponents say it means ⅔ of all those eligible to vote.

ASSESSMENT INCREASES would be limited to two percent per year.

REASSESSMENTS would be made only when a home is sold.

Main provisions of the Behr bill

Here are the major provisions of the Behr bill, SB 1, being billed as an alternative to the Jarvis initiative:

PROPERTY TAXES would be cut at least 30 percent for all homeowners. The loss in revenue to local governments would be made up by the state taking over a share of welfare costs.

RENTERS would get an increase in their income tax credit from $37 to $75 a year.

SENIOR CITIZENS would get a larger share of tax relief than under current senior citizen tax programs.

TAX INCREASES by local government would be limited to the increase in the cost of government services, plus new construction.

LAUNCHING A fund-raising drive to build a new parish counseling service center and parochial residence at St. Lucy's Catholic parish last week were, from left, Father Thomas Bettencourt, Father Leonard W. Bose and Father Constante Buenavista. Pastor Bose says a minimum goal of $200,000 has been established to replace the present building adjacent to the church at 2350 Winchester blvd. That 75-year-old building, which was originally a family residence, has been extensively remodeled over the years but has deteriorated to the degree that building experts say further repairs would be impractical, Bose related. The fund-raising drive was launched recently on "Volunteer Sunday" by General Chairman Tony Meduri. Tentative plans call for construction to begin this fall with completion by the spring of 1979.

Fertility awareness class set

Fertility awareness is valuable to couples either wishing to avoid an unwanted pregnancy or to achieve a wanted one. It will be the subject of a class offered by Planned Parenthood of Santa Clara County.

The class, entitled "Fertility Awareness and Natural Family Planning" will be held March 20 from 7 to 10 p.m. 17 N. San Pedro St. San Jose.

Water, water everywhere: reservoirs more than full

Early March storms have provided just enough push to send water spilling over five Santa Clara County reservoirs.

Stevens Creek, Lexington, Almaden, Coyote and Chesbro reservoirs all have spilled over with likelihood great that Calero and Guadalupe will do the same soon, a far cry from recent drought days when an old high water mark was the only evidence the reservoir actually held water.

Some flooding trouble was expected but failed to materialize in South San Jose and Almaden Valley areas.

The county's reservoirs hold just under 180,000 acre feet and have nearly reached the 120,000 acre feet level. One of the larger reservoirs, Anderson, holds 91,280 acre feet but now has just under 39,000 acre feet of water storage. Coyote is 8,000 acre feet under its 23,700 acre feet storage capacity.

The San Jose municipal weather station has reported 16.22 inches of rainfall to date this season, six inches above normal and 11 inches higher than last year's total.

In a related matter, water district directors have removed the voluntary 25 per cent water conservation goal, substituting a permanent 10 per cent reduction goal.

This 10 per cent goal can be realized if domestic water users will refrain from washing down sidewalks, letting the hose run while washing the car, or watering lawns when it's too hot.

Director Pat Ferraro criticized removing the 25 per cent conservation goal, saying it will take three or four wet years for the underground water table to be replenished.

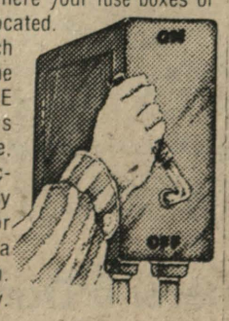
Put these tips and some spare fuses near your fuse box.

With a flashlight, they may help should your lights go out.

Be Prepared. Know where your fuse boxes or circuit breakers are located. Locate the main switch box—usually near the spot where the PG&E electric service wires connect to your house, or near your PG&E electric meter. Locate any additional fuse box or boxes—usually in a closet or utility room. Keep spare fuses handy.

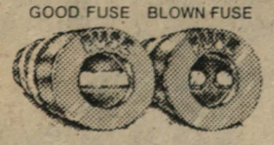


Check the Neighbors. If your lights should go out, check to see if other homes in your neighborhood have lights. If the power is off in your home only, you may have a blown fuse or tripped circuit breaker.

Determine the Cause. Blown fuses or tripped circuit breakers are often caused by having too many lamps or appliances connected to one outlet or circuit. Another possibility is a defective cord on a lamp or appliance. To check, unplug all lamps or appliances on the affected circuit, looking for defective plugs or cords while doing so. Replace the blown fuse or reset the tripped circuit breaker, following the procedures given below. Then plug each lamp or appliance back in one at a time. A defective one or an overload will cause the fuse to blow, or circuit breaker to trip, again.

To Replace a Fuse. First turn the main switch to "OFF." Make sure that your hands are dry and that you are standing on a dry surface. Look for the "blown" fuse; the "window" may be blackened, or there may be a visible gap in the fuse element. Replace the blown fuse with one of the proper amperage rating, usually one of not more than 30 amps. Never use a penny or other metal object to "bridge" the blown fuse, as this could cause a house fire. Turn the main switch to "ON." If only part of the lights in the house come on, this may indicate that a circuit breaker has tripped, or a fuse in a branch fuse box has also blown. Check these fuses in the same way you did at the main switch. Branch box fuses have a maximum rating of 15 or 20 amps.

GOOD FUSE BLOWN FUSE



Cartridge Fuses. Be sure the main switch is "OFF" while you are changing cartridge fuses. You won't be able to visually tell exactly which cartridge fuse is blown. In this case, test by safely replacing each fuse with a new one until you find the blown fuse. Generally it's a good idea to replace all cartridge fuses in a circuit when one blows.

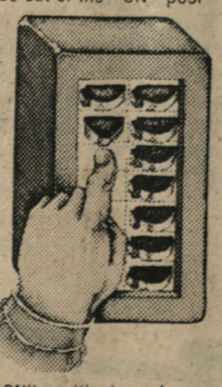
To Reset a Circuit Breaker. A tripped circuit breaker will probably be out of the "ON" position. Move the affected circuit breaker handle all the way to the "OFF" position (for some circuit breakers, a moderate pressure in the "OFF" direction is necessary to cause them to reset). Then, move the handle to the "ON" position. If the affected circuit breaker does not indicate that it has tripped (its handle has not moved from "ON" position), and you do not know which circuit breaker controls the affected circuit, try resetting all circuit breakers.



Some Added Safety Tips. Never plug in electrical appliances near bathtubs or basins. Never wash coffee pots or frying pans while they are still plugged in. Make sure that electric tools are properly grounded (with a 3-prong plug), or are of the U.L. approved "double-insulated" type. When you unplug an appliance, pull the plug—not the cord.

Still in the Dark? If you've followed all of these procedures and you're still in the dark, don't hesitate to call PG&E. We'll be happy to help.

Holland tops seventh annual All-SUN team

By DICK SPARRER
Sports Editor

"Melvin Holland is going to find it tough to top the kind of season he put together last year."

East San Jose SUN, December 7, 1977

THOSE WORDS WERE certainly true last December. Holland had posted an impressive junior season in the orange and black uniform of the Silver Creek Raiders.

Holland had averaged 15.6 points a game to help the Raiders to a second place finish in the Mt. Hamilton Athletic League South division. He was named the most valuable player in the MHAL South and was a first team pick on the sixth annual All-SUN basketball team.

It was a very good year, so the song says. And it was the kind of year that would be tough for anyone to equal, let along top — but he topped it!

He bettered his impressive double figure scoring average by 12 points to an unbelievable 27.4 in league play to help Silver Creek to the MHAL championship and then to a first ever Central Coast Section crown!

He didn't just walk away as the South division's MVP this season — he won that honor and was then named the MHAL's Player of the Year!

And now, he's not a first team player on the seventh annual All-SUN basketball team — he's the Most Valuable Player!

Holland joins former Raider greats Vester Robinson and Glen Wolf and current collegiate stars Mark McNamara and Ray Townsend on the list of All-SUN MVP's after an incredible season for Silver Creek.

HOLLAND, WHO WAS a first team All-SUN performer as a junior and an honorable mention pick as a sophomore at SC, broke the MHAL's record for scoring average this year with his 27.4 scoring mark.

The outstanding "leaper," who can fly an incredible 43 inches off the basketball floor, was also a leading rebounder for the Raiders as he led Silver Creek to a perfect MHAL season. He averaged 26 points a game in the Region III play-offs and 27.6 points a game in the rugged CCS play-offs.

Joining Holland as special award winners on the 1977-78 All-SUN team are coaches Rich Freedman and Mike Gervasoni and fellow players Rick Rebozzi, Eric Berge and Robbie Rocha.

Freedman of Lincoln and Gervasoni of Silver Creek share coach of the year honors on this year's team.

Freedman led a small but fast Lion team to the Santa Teresa Athletic League and Region III championships before Lincoln finished fourth in the CCS. The tallest Lion among the regulars was 6'2". It was just Freedman's second year at the Lion helm.

No one could ever go wrong picking Gervasoni as a coach of the year since the Raiders are perennial winners under his leadership. And this year Geravasoni led his Raiders to the MHAL and CCS championships. It marked the first time that an MHAL team had even reached the CCS finals, let alone win the title.

REBOZZI, THE QUICK guard from Lincoln, was named the All-SUN best defensive player and his teammate, Rocha, was picked the best sixth man.

Berge of Piedmont Hills was tabbed the All-SUN comeback player of the year. Berge, after suffering through two seasons with diabetes, finally came into his own this year for the Pirates with an impressive 16.8 per game scoring average.

Lincoln won All-SUN team of the year honors for the 1977-78 season. The Lions won the STAL and Region III titles and added the fourth at CCS to finish the year with a 26-4 record, including two wins over CCS champion Silver Creek.

The Westmont Warriors of the West Valley Athletic League were picked the comeback team of the year. After a rocky start this season, the Warriors battled back to win a spot in the WVAL play-offs.

Holland sits above the All-SUN first team as the squad's MVP. Members of the first team include guards Rebozzi of Lincoln and Robert Toloy of Oak Grove, center Carl Powell of San Jose and forwards John Russo of Leigh and Gary Hopkins of Ayer.

Second team members include guards Terry Davis and Rocha of Lincoln, center Nick Seroff of Prospect and forwards Tony Montelongo of Lincoln and Tony Chukes of Santa Teresa.

Third team All-SUN picks include guards John Shepardson of Leigh and John Hohu of Oak Grove, centers Mike Baldwin of Silver Creek and Roger Samuels of Branham and forwards Stan Kazmierczak of Prospect, Tony Marx of Lincoln and Greg Woodard of Silver Creek.

FOUR OF THE five first team players, not including Holland, were most valuable players on their all-league squads.

Powell, who led the STAL with a 23.5 scoring average, shared MVP honors with Rebozzi in the Santa Teresa league and Russo, who averaged 22.2 points a game, was the MVP in the WVAL. Hopkins, the only junior on the All-SUN first team, was the MVP of the MHAL's North division after averaging 19.3 points a game on the year.

Toloy was a first team all-leaguer in the MHAL's South division with his 15.1 scoring average. The fine ball handler was second to Holland in the MVP poll in the division.

Russo was a member of the All-SUN second team last year and was an honorable mention pick as a sophomore. Powell, Rebozzi, Toloy and Hopkins were each honorable mention choices last season.

Seroff, who averaged 16.6 points a game, Montelongo (14.4) and Chukes (19.3) were each first team all-leaguers nabbing second team All-SUN spots and Davis (12.6) and Rocha (10.1) were each second team all-leaguers. Davis, a sophomore, is the only underclassman on the second team.

Rocha was a third team choice last year and Seroff, Montelongo and Chukes each picked up All-SUN honorable mention honors.

Kazmierczak (15.9), Samuels (21.6), Baldwin (10.0) and Marx (15.4) were each first team all-leaguers winning third team All-SUN spots and Woodard (12.4), Shepardson (12.8) and Hohu were second team all-leaguers. Hohu and Marx are just juniors.

Kazmierczak, Marx, Shepardson and Hohu were each honorable mention picks on the 1976-77 All-SUN team and Woodard grabbed a third team spot.

Rebozzi, Rocha and Woodard each nailed spots on the All-SUN basketball team after winning first team All-SUN honors in the fall on the prestigious football team.

What is the All-SUN team

The ALL-SUN basketball team is picked annually by the sports writers of the Milpitas POST, East San Jose SUN, North San Jose SUN, Almaden-Cambrian SUN, Central San Jose SUN, South San Jose SUN and Campbell PRESS.

Athletes from 26 area high schools are considered for the team and are judged for both their on-the-court ability and their sportsmanship.

Included in the "All-SUN" area are Samuel Ayer, Blackford, Branham, Camden, Campbell, Del Mar, Gunderson, Andrew Hill, Independence, Leigh, Leland, James Lick, Lincoln, Milpitas, Mt. Pleasant, Oak Grove, Overfelt, Piedmont Hills, Pioneer, Prospect, San Jose, Santa Teresa, Silver Creek, Westmont, Willow Glen and Yerba Buena.

Zirzow starts career out right in Westmont pool

KEVIN Zirzow hasn't been a varsity swimmer in high school for very long. In fact, Zirzow hasn't even been in high school very long! But the Westmont freshman started in his prep career swimming out in style for the Warriors.

Zirzow won two events in school record and Central Coast Section qualifying times and swam a leg of a winning relay team to lead Westmont to a season opening 92-78 non-league victory over powerful Leland.

Westmont won all but three events in the win over Leland, the perennial champions of the Santa Teresa Athletic League.

Zirzow, the son of Westmont coach Bill Zirzow, won the 50 free in the record time of 22.6 and took the 100 free in the record time of 49.0. The freshman also joined with Jeff Holshevinkoff, Chris Soule and Brian Kelly for a first place finish in the 400 free relay at 3:30.3.

Holshevinkoff was also a double winner for the Warriors in the team victory, taking the 500 free at 4:53.1 and the 200 free at 1:51.1. Both times were CCS qualifying times.

Tom Boese won the 100 back in the CCS qualifying time of 59.6 and finished second in the 200 individual medley at 2:08.3, good for a new school record and CCS qualifying.

Jeff Culp won the 100 breast in the CCS qualifying time of 1:05.2 and Mark Diaz was first in the diving event at 219.15.

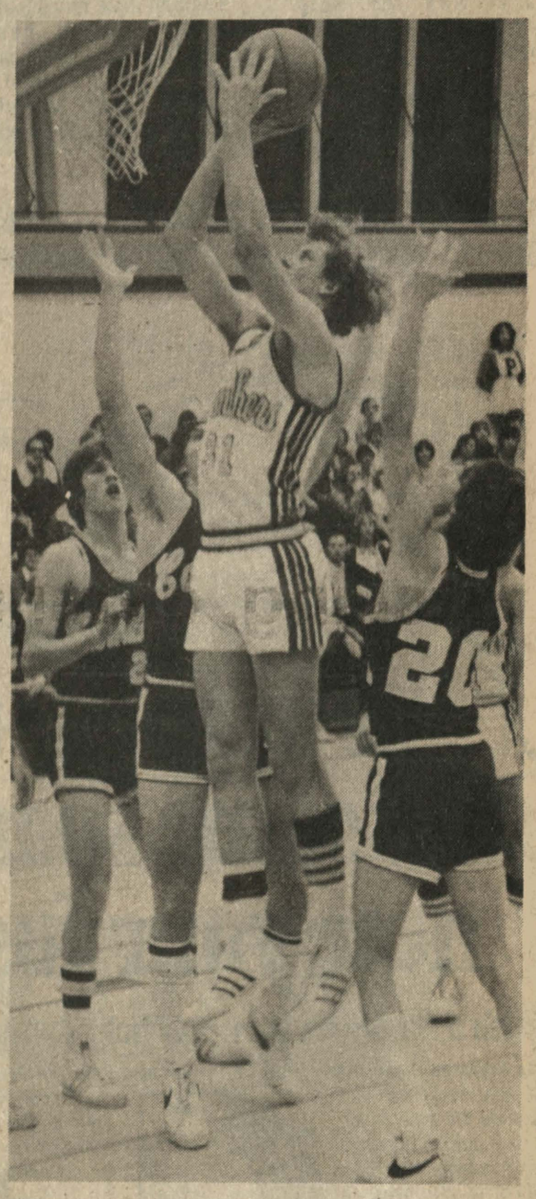
WESTMONT came back to nab a second place finish in its own Westmont Relays. Leland was first at 104 and the Warriors tied with Leigh and Branham for second, all three teams at 82.

K. Zirzow, Holsehvinkoff and Boese got together with Bill Zirzow for a first in the 400 back relay at 3:59.9 for Westmont and the Zirzows and Holsehvinkoff combined with Soule for a first in the 500 free relay at 4:30.3.

The Zirzows and Boese combined with Gary Dalley for a first place finish in the 400 individual medley relay at 4:03.8 and Diaz led the Warriors to a first in the diving relay at 187.60. Westmont also won the 1,000 free relay at 9:03.4, 10 swimmers going 100 yards each.

Campbell won the 400 free relay at 3:37.3 on its way to a sixth place team finish in the meet.

Westmont opened the West Valley Athletic League season last week against Blackford and will battle Prospect on Friday, March 17, in a 3:30 p.m. meet in the Panther pool.



THIRD TEAM — Stan Kazmierczak of Prospect picked up a third team forward spot on the seventh annual All-SUN team.

Kammerer a Don diver

FORMER Westmont high school diving star Joe Kammerer won both the one meter and three meter diving events for De Anza College in Golden Gate Conference action against Diablo Valley College and Laney. The Dons lost to defending champ DVC but crushed Laney.

Kammerer won the one meter diving event with 231.75 points and took the three meter dive with 289.50 points.

Defending champs the loop favorite

Pitching name of game for Buc diamondmen

By DAVE MENDONCA

PITCHING, most coaches will tell you, is the name of the game in baseball. And that's the main reason the coaches of the West Valley Athletic League have tabbed the Campbell Buccaneers as the team to beat once again in 1978.

"Our pitching should be our strength," noted Campbell head coach Gordon Huntze, who will attempt to guide the Buccaneers to their second straight WVAL title in 1978. "And our defense should be strong, too."

Pitching and defense are a hard combination to beat. And Huntze is counting on those Buc strengths to counter Campbell's lone weakness — hitting.

"Offensively, we have pretty good team speed," said the longtime Buc mentor. "But I'm not sure about our bats. Of course, it's still early in the season."

Campbell's offensive attack, however, left something to be desired in the Buccaneers' first two practice games of the season.

The Bucs opened the season with an 8-3 loss to Soquel and then suffered a 4-1 loss to Oak Grove, managing a total of just 10 hits in the two games.

IN THE BUCS' defense, however, both Soquel and Oak Grove are outstanding teams. Soquel reached the Central Coast Section play-offs last year along with Campbell, while Oak Grove has won the Mt. Hamilton Athletic League championship in four of the last five years.

"Our defense really hurt us," said Huntze, pointing to Campbell's seven errors in the two games. "We made some key mistakes. But the potential is there. We just need to find some people to fill spots left by a couple of players who graduated."

The Bucs have eight players returning from last year's championship squad, including standout pitcher Mike Sullivan, who posted a 7-1 record for Campbell last year.

Other varsity returners include Tim Alcocer, Cliff Judd, Mark Ortiz, Scott Pense, Dan Trinidad, Brian Raust, and Mike Updegraff.

Rounding out the Campbell roster are Doug Aguilara, Bruce Bjerke, Joe Cucchiara, Dave Erkman, Dave Favre, Don Hart, Joe Jones, Dan Romeo and Ken Schmidt.

Sullivan heads a strong pitching staff that will also consist of starters Favre, Trinidad, Jones and Ortiz, and short relievers Alcocer and Erkman.

WHEN HE'S not pitching, Sullivan will play first base for the Bucs. When he is on the mound, Cucchiara and Updegraff will share the first base duties.

Erkman has the inside track at second base with Trinidad and Aguilara also battling for the keystone sack.

Alcocer is at shortstop with Trinidad backing him up.

Third base is up for grabs between Updegraff and Jones.

Raust has the catcher's spot nailed down with Romeo serving as his back-up.

In the Campbell high outfield, Romeo and Bjerke are fighting for left; Ortiz, Judd and Schmidt are dueling for center; and Pense and Hart are vying for right.

"I think we're going to be competitive," understated Huntze. "We lost four or five solid players from last year's team. But we have a pretty good nucleus to work with. We have good strength on the mound and behind the plate, and that's a good start."

While the Buccaneers were being picked by almost all of the coaches in the WVAL to repeat as WVAL champs, Huntze was retaining a healthy respect for his club's competitors.

"IT'S GOING to be a very tough league again this year," said the Bucs' boss, who singled out Leigh, Los Gatos, Westmont, Del Mar and Branham as teams capable of dethroning the Bucs. "It'll be interesting."

The Bucs opened their season recently by losing to Soquel, committing five errors in the defeat.

Sullivan worked the first four innings and was tagged with the loss, yielding four runs. Favre and Ortiz finished up the game on the hill.

Campbell scored twice in the fourth inning after loading the bases on singles by Bjerke and Raust, and a walk to Updegraff. A force out by Erkman scored one run and Alcocer knocked in another with a single.

In the sixth, Alcocer drilled a sacrifice fly to left to plate Raust, who had reached base on an error.

Sullivan was two for four in the loss while Alcocer, Bjerke and Raust each had one hit. Alcocer had a pair of runs-batted-in.

Against Oak Grove last Friday, two Campbell errors led to three unearned runs and a Buccaneer loss.

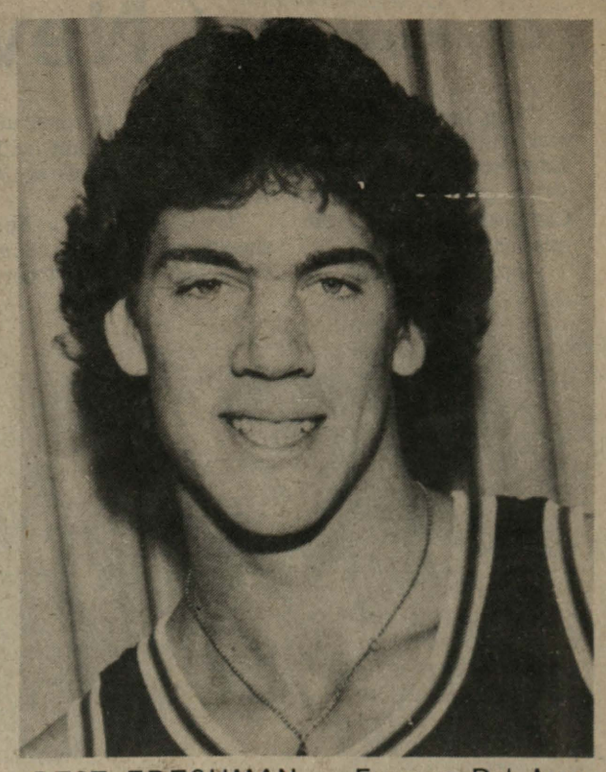
CAMPBELL'S ONLY run of the game came in the third inning when Raust singled, moved to third on a double by Updegraff and scored on a passed ball.

Sullivan, Pense, Erkman, Raust and Updegraff accounted for Campbell's five hits in the loss.

Trinidad absorbed the loss, working the first three innings and allowing all four runs, only one earned. He yielded six hits and two walks while striking out one.

Ortiz worked the final three innings, giving up no runs, one hit and five walks. He fanned three.

The Bucs, who were scheduled to play Buchser earlier this week, visit Wilcox today (Thursday) for a 3:15 p.m. contest.



BEST FRESHMAN — Former Del Mar high school basketball star Mark McNamara was named the West Coast Athletic Conference freshman player of the year after a fine season at center for Santa Clara University. McNamara was a second team choice on the all-WCAC team.

Dons look for 1966 magic this spring

IT HASN'T HAPPENED since 1966, but it just might happen in 1978!

No, Herman's Hermits aren't trying to make a nostalgic comeback and another actor isn't trying to become the governor of California. It's just that the Del Mar Dons are going after another West Valley Athletic League baseball title!

The Dons last won the WVAL title in 1966 and came up just a game short last season, finishing one game behind league champion Campbell. But the Dons are gunning for another title in 1978!

"I'm expecting another strong season," said Don boss Gary Cunningham looking ahead to 1978. "As to how strong or how successful we'll be, it depends on how we react in pressure situations."

"We have the potential to be number one," admitted Cunningham. "Whether we do the job in clutch situations remains to be seen."

Eight lettermen head the Don hopes in 1978 with comeback all-leaguer Jeff Blobaum leading the way.

BLOBAUM WILL lead the Don mound corps this season after a strong showing on the hill as a junior. Blobaum was 10-4 last year, 7-1 in league play, with four saves and a 1.81 earned run average.

Letterman Tom Bell is a junior who was 2-0 on the mound for the Dons last year and will join Blobaum as a Del Mar starter. The two will also share the shortstop spot. Bell hit .337 last year for Del Mar.

Larry Ragusa and John Benevento are each juniors up from the frosh-soph who will pitch for the Dons this spring.

Dan McKay is a senior letterman back at second base for the Dons. McKay hit .450 last year in league play.

Kevin Cesar is a senior letterman starting at first base and Craig Bates is a senior out for the first time starting at third base.

Jim Dorr is a senior back for his second varsity season at catcher. Dorr was .404 last year for the Dons.

JUNIOR LETTERMAN Craig Richesin is back in left field for the Dons after hitting .317 in the WVAL last spring. Mike Greco, a junior up from the f-s, is the center fielder and senior lettermen Bob Cirivilleri and Fred Gradel are battling for the starting job in right field.

Cunningham rates Sean Venezia, a second sacker and designated hitter, Bill Tsamis, a first baseman up from the frosh-soph, and Scott Levander, a utilityman up from the frosh-soph, as top reserves for 1978.

"We'll have fairly strong pitching and hitting and above average speed," said Cunningham, beginning his fifth season as the Don varsity coach. "And our defense will be sound. Dorr gives us a lot of experience at catcher and we're okay up the middle and at the corners. We have good speed in the outfield."

Del Mar finished 1977 with a 22-7 overall record, the best in the history of the school, and ended league play with a 13-3 mark and one game behind Campbell.

Cunningham looks for his Dons to finish in the top two again this season with Campbell.

The Dons open WVAL play on Monday, March 27, at Los Gatos and will host Campbell a day later in an important WVAL game.

Bucs win loop election, now gun for title

Also mentioned as contenders were Los Gatos, Leigh, Del Mar, Westmont and Branham. The Longhorns were mentioned by three coaches as a possible favorite and the Dons and Wildcats were each named by two coaches.

But elections don't win titles. And with teams still more than a week away from the start of league play, there's a long way to go before any team can claim the crown.

IF LEAGUE championships were decided like elections, on votes, the Campbell Buccaneers would already be the West Valley Athletic League baseball champions!

The Bucs, according to the rest of the coaches in the WVAL, look like the team to beat this spring. Every coach in the WVAL, with the exception of one, ranked Campbell as the title favorite in a pre-season poll.

YMCA swim lessons set

THE SOUTHWEST YMCA will offer a learn-to-swim program for youngsters in grades one-six during Easter vacation (March 18-24) at the Prospect high school pool.

A special registration and testing day will start the program on Saturday, March 18, at noon for first graders, 12:45 p.m. for second graders, 1:30 p.m. for third graders, 2:15 p.m. for fourth graders and 2:45 p.m. for fifth and sixth graders.

For further information on the program call the Southwest YMCA at 356-7126 or stop by their office at 16500 West Mozart ave. in Los Gatos.

Ski reports

KNBR RADIO (68) will broadcast ski reports throughout the season on Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. Sunday report will also include road condition reports.

Pitching, defense key to Warrior bat season

IF A BASEBALL team doesn't allow any runs, there's no way it can be beaten. And that just might be the key to the 1978 West Valley Athletic League diamond season for the Westmont Warriors.

A strong crop of pitchers, led by returning all-leaguer Scott Ruiz, and a strong defense give Westmont hope for a contending spot in the WVAL title race this spring.

"The team should have pretty good pitching, defense and speed," said first year baseball coach Don Stagnaro, who doubles as the Warrior football coach. "Our hitting will have to improve, though. There won't be any power on the team, but we look for steadiness."

Ruiz and shortstop Darrin Massey were both all-WVAL performers last year and lead a crew of eight returning lettermen for Westmont this season.

Ruiz leads the mound corps. The fireballer was 6-1 with a 2.73 earned run average last season. Junior letterman Tim Mooney, senior letterman Mike Adams, junior Mike Grado, junior Mark Clough, junior Lou Leis and junior Jeff Ercolini are other Westmont mound hopefuls.

MASSEY IS back as the club's shortstop in his senior season. Massey, who is backed up at short by Mooney, hit a lofty .389 for the Warriors last season.

Adams will be the club's first baseman along with seeing action on the mound. Adams hit .345 last year for the Warriors. Leis is also looking for work at first.

Senior letterman Bob Bossi is back at catcher for Westmont, fighting for work with junior Gary Churchill.

Senior letterman Don Iwanaga is at second with senior lettermen Richard Morin and junior Mike Larson battling for the third base spot.

Senior letterman Mike Clough and senior transfer Tom Grady are top Westmont prospects in the outfield.

Stagnaro rates Campbell as the team to beat in the WVAL this season. And the Warriors will open that WVAL season on Monday, March 27, at Camden.

Westmont will visit Gunderson on Thursday, March 16, for a 3:30 p.m. game and will head to Carmel on Saturday for an 11 a.m. battle.

Johnson nails state second for Foothill

FORMER James Lick and Blackford high school wrestling star Doug Johnson finished second in the state at 158 pounds as a member of the Foothill College wrestling team.

Johnson finished the season with a 33-4 record for the Owls, losing in the championship finals at the state tournament in Bakersfield 7-0 to Pintao Para of El Camino College.

Johnson won 5-2, 4-2 and 3-1 to get into the finals against Para, who had beaten him just a few weeks earlier in the North-South all-star meet on the same Bakersfield mat.

Johnson, an All-American with his state second, helped Foothill to a state 17th with his second place finish.

City approval / New restaurant planned for Hamilton avenue

Plans for a new restaurant at the corner of E. Hamilton ave. and Third street got the nod from Campbell planning commissioners last week.

Applicant James E. Palmer plans to construct a JoJo's restaurant with seating for 134 people at 150 E. Hamilton ave.

E. Central avenue should be renamed Sam Cava lane, commissioners decided at their March 7 meeting. That recommendation must receive final approval from the City Council.

According to a report issued by the Civic Improvement Commission, Sam Cava should be the name change because Cava served as part-time manager of the Chamber of Commerce from 1954-61, served as annexation coordinator for the city in 1958 and is credited with influencing 23 significant new industries to locate in Campbell.

In other action the commission:

• Voted 5-1 to approve a one year use permit for a dog grooming salon at 290 W. Hamilton ave. Commissioner Carl Samuelson cast the lone "no" vote and Commissioner Don Hebard was absent.

• Recommended approval of plans for a 63-unit apartment complex at 3675 and 3685 S. Bascom ave. by Paul Consentino and LaCon Builders. Commissioner Peggy Pack abstained on the vote.

• Asked City Attorney Bob Dempster to draft a list of criteris commissioners should use in issuing future use permits.

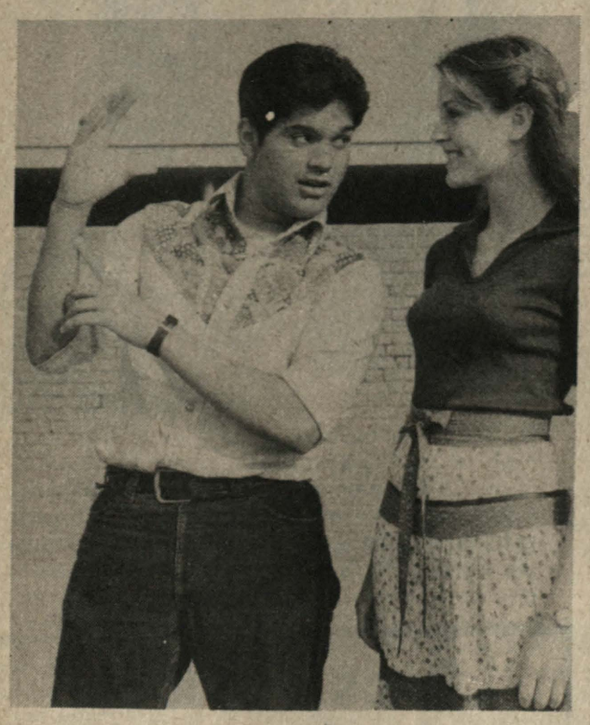
• Approved the application of E.D. Wadlow to construct an office building at 80 E. Hamilton ave.

• Recommended approval of the application by Robert P. Schiro to construct eight townhomes at 360 Downing. Commissioner Pack abstained.

• Unanimously approved the application of Royaden F. Stark to construct a commercial building at 2505 S. Winchester blvd.

• Approved the revised plans of Alan M. Harris to construct a racquetball club at 70 S. San Tomas Aquino road.

• Gave approval to plans by Larry E. Rudicel to construct a four-unit addition to an existing duplex at 1179 Smith ave. in order to create six condominium units.



IN REHEARSAL for the Leigh High School production of "Carnival" which runs March 15-18, are Joe Garewal (Jacquot) and Paula Moser (Lilli). The play will include clowns, jugglers, a magician and even a snake charmer in the school cafetorium. Curtain time is 7:30 p.m. March 15 and 16 and 8 p.m. March 17 and 18. Barbara Riesenhuber is director with Cliff Patterson, musical director.

Fares reduced
Youths score a victory

The first countywide issue tackled by city and county youth commissions brought about a vote change by the county board of supervisors recently.

Supervisors voted 4 to 1 to increase youth bus fares by 50 per cent, instead of the 100 per cent, originally approved.

When new transit buses are in operation youth fares will go from 10 to 15 cents, instead of 20 cents as planned.

Representatives of the Campbell Youth Commission, San Jose Youth Commission and Santa Clara County Youth Commission appeared before supervisors last month to plead their case.

The young people brought with them petitions with more than 1,500 signatures of young people protesting that 100 per cent hike, and letters of support from the Campbell City Council and the Mayor of San Jose. They also had support from about 20 youth leaders and schools.

Youth leaders, including Ken Podgorsek of Campbell, argued they felt the original increase was excessive considering fares for adults would increase by 40 per cent while seniors would have no fare increase.

In approving the request the board agreed with the youth leaders noting that the 50 per cent hike would be in line with other youth fares in the Bay Area.

PRESENTING the first place ribbon to Marshall Mattingly at the recent Campbell Junior High School Science Fair was Principal Gordon Vallandigham. Mattingly's top rated project was on fingerprints.

'Eye in the sky' aids Highway Patrol work

The California Highway Patrol may not have "eyes in the back of its head" but that statement is still pretty close to the truth.

San Jose area CHP officers have a new helicopter with a 180 mile-an-hour speed limit which lets them get a jump on emergencies and errors of valley motorists.

The new helicopter, which also will monitor traffic from Santa Rosa to Santa Cruz County, can carry two injury victims or one more than the old whirlybird which has been in service 8,300 hours in the last nine years.

The highway patrol's new helicopter will be berthed at Reid-Hillview Airport on San Jose's Eastside when not responding to emergencies, traffic surveillance or search-rescue requests.

Helicopters, incidentally, prove handy for officers in capturing suspects, helping ground units stop drunks and speeders, more speedily evacuating accident victims and in moving blood and drugs from one hospital to another.

Why not federal urban parks?

There is a connection, we think, between the growing crime problem in the national parks and the debate over federal spending priorities for parks and recreation.

Even allowing for a nostalgic gloss on how good it was in the old days, there is no question that public behavior in the parks has worsened. A Yosemite ranger, testifying before a House subcommittee said felony crimes were practically unknown in the park in the mid-1950s but now are "alarmingly commonplace."

He remarked, for example, on the "changing public ethic" which now makes unattended campsites vulnerable to theft.

But almost all of the crime, he said, occurs in the heavily used Yosemite Valley — not in the more open areas of the park.

That raises the issue of spending priorities. There is heavy pressure to start putting more federal parks money into areas which are close to cities.

The idea is to bring parks to people who might never get to a park in the mountains or other distant places.

But another benefit might be to take some of the burden off places like Yosemite Valley, where visitor density is a problem in terms of both ecology and law enforcement.

In close-in parks there would be less at stake environmentally, and control would be easier.

That doesn't mean traditional open-space acquisition, maintenance and development programs should be starved, which is the fear of some environmentalists. The Park Service should get enough money to carry out all its missions.

The point is, those who think the federal emphasis should be on the great outdoors should not begrudge a larger share of money going to urban parks. Anything which keeps casual recreation-seekers close to home indirectly helps the wildland parks which environmentalists hold so dear.

public notices

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Governing Board of West Valley Joint Community College District, 14000 Fruitvale Avenue, Saratoga, California, hereby calls for sealed proposals for a Sub-contract for a: BID #10-7778 CENTRAL MONITOR AND CONTROL SYSTEM at Mission College, Santa Clara, California. All proposals shall be on a lump sum basis. Note that this work is covered by an allowance under an existing General Contract with Nicholson Brown, Inc. of Santa Clara, California. As such this work will be subject to Paragraph 4.8 of the General Conditions, which states in part:

4.8 ALLOWANCES

4.8.1 The Contractor shall include in the Contract Sum all allowances stated in the Contract Documents. Items covered by these allowances shall be supplied for such amounts and by such persons as the Owner may direct, but the Contractor will not be required to employ persons against whom he makes a reasonable objection.

Accordingly the successful bidder agrees, by submission of a bid, to enter into a sub-contractual agreement with the General Contractor, and to be bound by all appropriate contractual provisions which govern the execution of the General Contract to which this work will become a part.

Contract Documents to be issued to all bidders for this work consist of Specifications Section 15525 accompanied by 8½ x 11 plates.

The Contract Documents which govern the General Contract are referred to herein as "Reference Documents".

Conditions for the proper submittal of a bid are as described below. Numbers in parenthesis refer to related sections in the INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS, AIA FORM A701, which is a part of these Contract Documents.

—01 DEPOSIT FOR BIDDING DOCUMENTS (3.1.1)

Contract Documents may be obtained from the Architect as noted below upon deposit of Twenty Five Dollars ($25.00) per set, which deposit will be refunded on return of such copies, in good condition, within ten (10) days after bids are opened.

—02 EXAMINATION AND SECURING OF DOCUMENTS (3.1.1)

A. Contract Documents may be examined and obtained at the office of the Architect at: Reid & Tarics Associates, 1019 Market Street, San Francisco, CA 94103.

B. Reference Documents may be examined at the office of the Architect as noted above.

—03 BID SECURITY (4.2.1)

Each Bid Proposal shall be accompanied by a Bid Bond on the form prescribed in the INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS, duly executed by the bidder as principal and corporation authorized to do business in the State of California as surety naming the West Valley Joint Community College District as obligee, or by a cashier's check or certified check, certified without qualification, drawn on a solvent bank of the State of California, in the amount of 10% of the total bid submitted, and made payable to the West Valley Joint Community College District. Should the party or parties to whom the Sub-contract be awarded fail to enter into a Sub-contract after the award, the proceeds of said certified or cashier's check or the amount paid by the bidder or his surety pursuant to the terms of said Bid Bond either voluntarily or pursuant to the judgment rendered by the court in any action brought thereon will be retained by said District as agreed and liquidated damages.

—04 PRE-BID CONFERENCE

For those interested bidders, a pre-bid conference will be held, the place and date as follows: Governing Board Room, West Valley College, 14000 Fruitvale Avenue, Saratoga, California, 15 March 1978 — 3:00 p.m.

—05 SUBMISSION OF BIDS (4.3)

Prior to the time and date set for the opening of bids, sealed bids must be delivered to the Purchasing Agent in the Finance Office in the Administration Building of West Valley College, 14000 Fruitvale Avenue, Saratoga, California 95070.

—06 WITHDRAWAL OF BIDS (4.4)

A bid may be withdrawn at any time up until the time designated for the opening of bids, in accordance with the procedures in Article 4.4 of the INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS. After the opening of bids, a bid may not be withdrawn for a period of sixty (60) days.

—07 OPENING OF BIDS (5.1.1)

Bids will be opened and read in the Governing Board Room of the Administration Building at 14000 Fruitvale Avenue, Saratoga, California 95070 on 22 March 1978 at 2:00 p.m. Proposals received after this time will be rejected and returned unopened.

Bidders or their representatives, and other interested persons, may be present at the opening of bids.

—08 PERFORMANCE AND LABOR AND MATERIAL BOND (8)

Will not be required by the Owner. Any such arrangements with the General Contractor are outside the scope of this document.

—09 AWARD OR REJECTION OF BIDS

The Sub-contract will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder complying with these instructions and with the Advertisement for Bids inviting bids, provided his bid is reasonable, and it is in the interest of the Owner to accept it. The Owner reserves the right to reject any bid of any bidder who has previously failed to perform properly, or to complete on time, contracts with the Owner for work of a nature similar to this project.

—10 BIDDERS INTERESTED IN MORE THAN ONE BID

No persons, firm, or corporation shall be allowed to make or file, or be interested in more than one bid for the same work, unless alternative bids are called for. A person, firm or corporation, who has submitted a sub-proposal to a bidder, or who has quoted prices on materials to a bidder, is not thereby disqualified from submitting a sub-proposal or quoting prices to other bidders.

—11 WAGE RATES

The Sub-contractor shall pay all laborers, workmen and mechanics on said work, or any part thereof, not less than the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for a legal holiday and overtime work, for work of a similar nature in the locality in which the work is performed, to wit: said school district, which per diem wages shall not be less than the stipulated rates contained in a schedule thereof which has been ascertained and determined by the Office of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara and which is now on file in the office of said Board and by reference incorporated herein and made a part hereof, and which said general prevailing rate of per diem wages as hereinabove referred to and adopted by each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute this Sub-contract.

—12 AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

By submission of a Proposal, the bidder affirms that he has read the Affirmative Action Program which is included as part of the Reference Documents and if awarded the Contract will comply with all requirements stated therein.

—13 SPECIAL NOTICE

Bidders are required to inform themselves fully of the conditions relating to construction and labor under which the work will be, or is now being, performed, and the Contractor must employ, as far as possible, such methods and means in the carrying out of his work as will not cause any interruptions or interferences with any other Contractor.
